

An Indian automotive design startup looking to venture into the European Union producer

Background

Being a bootstrapped start-up, the association and its creator was looking for the least price intends to enter the European market. Understanding the plan and financial prerequisites of the patron, our team urged the client to open a UG (single individual limited German association). Opening a negligible cost virtual office foot office chamber of commerce registration, virtual secretary, and mail sending the executives and business visa advising plan were executed.

Challenge

01

Being a bootstrapped startup.

02

The organization and its originator was taking a gander at the low-cost budget

03

To enter and make a presence in the European market

How did we help?

Observing and Analyzing

Our Advice

Office Set-up

Virtual Communication

The result

Understanding the budget plan and monetary requirements of the client

Our expert team advises the patron to open a UG. UG company has no minimum capital prerequisite in advance

Opening a minimal expense virtual office foot at chambers of commerce registration

Virtual secretary and mail sending management and business visa counseling arrangement were rendered.

The organization currently offers a full span of CAD and design administrations to a no of German patron who can invoice locally.