

How ODINT Helped A Global Cyber Security Firm Enter & Manage Operations In The European Union Seamlessly

Background

The worldwide cybersecurity network protection firm was confronting tough to pick the right area in the European Union market. Directors and the shareholders of this worldwide cybersecurity network protection firm came from seven separate identities. In the wake of having a different round of profound conversation for the multi-week, we get their directors identified. At last, our financial team guided the client with the legitimate system to enter the European Union market.

Challenge

Picking the right region to open cybersecurity office premises and work with the European Central bank for giving digital protection administrations to European banks.

How Did We Help?

Directors and the shareholders of this worldwide network cyber security firm came from seven distinctive nationalities.

We held several rounds of planning under the vigilance leadership team.

We prompt on organizing, capital flow, and compliances needed to have a completely well-planned office in the European Union.

Within the time frame of six working weeks, got each one of their directors WAS identified.

Endorsed with legitimate personal investigations to domicile an organization in the Netherlands.

Our business transaction group guided the patron to apply for EU affirmations and accreditation method.

